

PERFIN PRICES

A recent advertisement in Stamp Collecting offered,
A conscientious collection of perfins, mostly Victorian, of 893
stamps, many not mentioned in Vallancey's Handbook. £220
A block of 42 of Sloper's original sample, the 1d red plate No.
143 with his trial perfin - TB&Co. £450
A framed plaque commemorating 75 years of perfinning "through five reigns", with mounted examples (12) from 1d Black to K.G.VI, prepared as "A unique set of perforated stamps from the historic collection of J. Sloper & Co. Ltd", together with their illuminated brochure, both issued in 1939 £145

With a 1d Black the latter collection must be unique if not spurious. Does anyone know anything about this lot?
